

SECTION 9: PREVENTION AND TRAINING

Return to Table of Contents

The university is committed to the prevention of prohibited conduct through regular and ongoing education and awareness programs. Incoming students and new employees receive primary prevention and awareness programming as part of their orientation, and returning students and current employees receive ongoing training and related education. For a description of the university's prohibited conduct prevention and awareness programs, including programs on minimizing the risk of incidents of prohibited conduct and bystander intervention, see Appendix E.
