

MASTER'S DEGREE REQUIREMENTS - CENTER FOR JUSTICE AND PEACEBUILDING

MASTER OF ARTS IN CONFLICT TRANSFORMATION REQUIREMENTS

Degree: Master of Arts

Semester Hours: 45

The Master of Arts in Conflict Transformation (MACT) is awarded upon successful completion of 45 semester hours (SH). This includes a 15 credit required core, a fall or spring skills assessment course, electives, and the practicum. Students work with an academic advisor to establish a course of study that will meet that student's vocational goals. When pursued full-time, the program can be completed in two academic years; limited-residency students normally finish in three to five years. Normally all students are required to spend at least one spring semester (January-May) on campus.

To graduate the student must meet all course and practicum requirements, earn a minimum GPA of 3.00, master the program assessment criteria for competency, and obtain formal approval of the faculty for graduation.
